

Note: "Repossessed Vehicles" = Repossessed Autos, Snowmobiles, All Terrain Vehicles and Trailered Watercraft

1. Who Should Report. The report should be made and signed by an authorized employee. A broker or agent is not authorized to report values to us.
2. Read Your Policy. Make sure you understand your reporting responsibility under the "Repossessed Vehicle Conditions" section of your Repossessed Vehicles endorsement. Note the penalties for late reports.
3. When To Report. Your reports are due as indicated in the Repossessed Vehicles endorsement Schedule. Failure to comply with this requirement can result in underinsurance or lack of coverage at certain locations.

We aren't required to notify you if your reports are late or inaccurate. Even if we do notify you, the described penalties still apply. If we accept a late report, the penalty, if any, applies and you are still expected to file future reports on time.
4. Describe Locations Accurately. Be sure to include the complete street address, city, state and zip code in your report of the location where the repossessed vehicles are kept.
5. Description Of Vehicles. Be sure to include the year, make, model, color and vehicle ID or serial number of each vehicle included on the report.
6. Values To Report. You should report the smaller of the ACV, the cost of repair or replacement, or the Loan Balance of each vehicle.
7. Date Repossessed. Your reports need to include the date the vehicle(s) was repossessed.
8. Date Sold. Your reports need to include the date the vehicle(s) was sold.
