

Travelers Claim Services Guide

COMMERCIAL CRIME INSURANCE AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTION BOND INSURANCE

Commercial crime insurance, sometimes referred to as a “fidelity bond,” helps protect insureds from losses arising from employee theft, burglary, robbery, forgery, fraudulent money orders, counterfeit money, computer crime, funds transfer fraud and certain claim expenses. Other crime-related coverages include identity fraud expense reimbursement, kidnap and ransom, government entity, commercial crime and ERISA employee dishonesty.

Financial institution bond crime insurance protects insureds from losses arising out of employee dishonesty, robbery, forgery, in transit, counterfeit currency, computer theft, kidnap and ransom and certain claim expenses. Other bond-related coverages can include ATM losses.

How do I report a claim?

What happens after I report a claim?

The life cycle of a claim varies depending on the nature of the claim. However, the claim process generally includes the following steps:

1. Acknowledgment

A letter will be sent to you and your agent to acknowledge Travelers’ receipt of the claim notice. This acknowledges receipt of the matter and provides you with a claim number and the name and contact information of the claim professional assigned to the matter. It will include instructions regarding the submission of your proof of loss.

2. Proof of loss submission

Within the time specified in your bond or policy, you must submit a detailed, sworn proof of loss with supporting documents.

3. Information gathering and investigation

Our formal investigation begins upon receipt of the proof of loss from you. The claim professional may engage an expert to assist in this process. You may receive communications requesting additional information in order to assist in the investigation of the claim.

4. Coverage determination

Travelers will send you a letter that outlines the coverage available under the policy. This letter should be viewed as an informative document, setting forth the terms, conditions and exclusions contained within the policy that may apply to your claim. It may also explain why a matter does not fall within the coverage provided.

5. Resolution

We strive to resolve claims as expeditiously as possible. The investigation period depends on many factors. Types of claims that may require fact-intensive investigation are:

- Losses involving many transactions
- Losses occurring over an extended period of time

6. Release and assignment

You may be asked to sign a release and assignment of your claim. This document permits Travelers to pursue recovery from any parties responsible for the loss.

Superior customer service

Travelers understands that life is full of uncertainty. Rest assured that, whenever possible, our claim professionals are ready to help. When you call, you can always expect to be assisted promptly and treated with the utmost respect, integrity, professionalism and skill.

When should I report a claim?

If you think it is a claim, it probably is.

You should report a claim as soon as possible. This means that as soon as you become aware of a claim, you should report the matter. When in doubt, report it and let Travelers make the determination as to whether the matter is or is not a claim. The sooner Travelers is notified, the sooner we can become involved in the process and offer assistance to you. A delay in reporting may cause all or part of a claim to fall outside of the coverage provided.
