

Amanda Mezerewski

Vice President
Personal Insurance Auto Product
Travelers

Amanda Mezerewski is a Vice President at Travelers and serves as the company's head of Personal Insurance Auto Product. In that role, Amanda has the responsibility for strategic planning and financial results of the automobile line of business, driving profitable growth and advancing capabilities to deliver top-tier performance.

Amanda received her Bachelor of Arts in economics from Providence College. She previously held leadership roles at Travelers within Product with responsibility for regional P&L's across auto and property. Amanda has a passion for developing others and is the Co-Chair of the Working Parents/Caregivers & Allies Diversity Network at Travelers.