

CHRIS DAY

ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT
CATASTROPHE CLAIM
TRAVELERS

Chris Day is the Assistant Vice President for Catastrophe Claim, and has responsibility for Shared Services, Communications, Logistics and Vendor Management. Chris previously held positions as the National Property Manager for the Midwest Region, Catastrophe Unit Manager and in multiple roles as a Catastrophe and Field Claim Handler. Prior to his 25 years at Travelers, he served for six years with the U.S. Army and Colorado National Guard.

Chris is the former Chair of the Travelers Military/Veterans and Allies Diversity Network and helps to champion several Travelers Community Relations initiatives in and outside of Connecticut – including our continuing partnership with Team Rubicon disaster relief and our sponsorship of the Insurance and Finance Pathway at Weaver High School in Hartford.

Chris swam for the University of New Mexico. He still swims competitively and trains with the coaching staff at Trinity College in Hartford.
