

CLAYTON WELCH

AVP AND INFORMATION SECURITY OFFICER
FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF DALLAS – HOUSTON BRANCH

Clayton Welch is an Assistant Vice President and Information Security Officer at the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. His role is to, essentially, make sure Federal Reserve doesn't end up in the news from a cyber-attack. He holds a bachelor's degree in Management Information Systems from Texas Tech University and a master's degree in Information Engineering and Management from Southern Methodist University. He is also a Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) and a Project Management Professional (PMP).

Outside of work he enjoys family time, golfing, pickleball, being outdoors, running, going to great restaurants (especially Mexican food), and going wherever life takes him.
