

DAVE LEICHTMAN

DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY MICROSOFT

Dave Leichtman is the Director of Corporate Civic Responsibility at Microsoft. As part of the company's Democracy Forward program, he leads nonpartisan civic engagement efforts and works with election officials and those upholding democracy worldwide to address tech, security, and AI needs. Dave also leads the company's internal US and international election strategy.

Dave has held this and similar roles for over 10 years at Microsoft. Prior to that, he held leadership roles at several US political technology firms. He also served as state leadership for a major US political party for over a decade.

Dave holds a B.S. in Physics and Computer Science from William & Mary and an M.S. in Particle Physics from University of Washington. He lives in Arlington, Virginia.