

Eric Nordquist

Executive Vice President and President,
Small Commercial and BI Business Centers
Business Insurance

Eric Nordquist is Executive Vice President and President of Small Commercial and Business Insurance Business Centers at Travelers. He is responsible for a collection of businesses, including Select, that serve small business owners, and the specialty areas of Agribusiness, National Programs, Northland Transportation and Northfield Excess & Surplus. He also leads the BI Business Centers located across the country that create capacity at the local level and provide customer solutions that make it easier to do business with Travelers. He is a member of the company's Management Committee and Operating Committee.

Nordquist joined Travelers Personal Insurance (PI) in 2011. Most recently, he served as Senior Vice President, Product Management and Analytics for PI. He was responsible for day-to-day profit and growth, managing national underwriting, lines of business and state product management. In addition, Nordquist was responsible for driving advanced analytics and business analytical insights broadly across all PI functions. Prior to that, he served as Vice President, PI Product Manager.

He previously worked for nearly 14 years at The Hartford in senior product and underwriting roles in Personal Insurance and Commercial Lines.

Nordquist holds a Bachelor of Science in mathematics from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia, and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) in finance from the University of Connecticut. Eric lives in West Hartford with his wife Amy and three girls, Emma, Molly and Claire. He enjoys running, college basketball (especially Syracuse basketball) and spending time at the beach on Cape Cod.
