

JOE BALOG

ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT
CATASTROPHE CLAIM
TRAVELERS

Joe Balog is the Assistant Vice President of the Property Workforce Management Catastrophe organization at Travelers, where he is responsible for overseeing key initiatives and operations that support the company's response to catastrophe events.

Joe joined Travelers 16 years ago and has held a variety of leadership roles, including Analyst, Unit Manager and Managing Director. Throughout his tenure, he has played a critical role in advancing claim initiatives across both the Property and Auto lines of business.

In his current role, Joe provides strategic guidance and operational leadership during catastrophe events and works closely with senior and local office leadership to ensure effective communication and workflow execution.

Joe and his wife currently live in Somers, Connecticut. He is a proud father of three daughters and a graduate of Western New England University.
