

MADHU TADIKONDA

HEAD OF THE SPECIALTY CYBER
BUSINESS UNIT
TRAVELERS

Madhu Tadikonda leads the Specialty Cyber business unit at Travelers, a group that was created following Travelers' acquisition of Corvus in January 2024. Madhu was CEO of Corvus, the industry-leading tech/data-driven cyber insurance underwriter. Madhu began his insurance career at AIG, first as Head of Data Science for Commercial Insurance/Claims and then as Global Chief Underwriting Officer, overseeing $30+ billion of P&C premium worldwide. After AIG, Madhu moved to the InsurTech world as co-founder and founding executive team member for Archipelago Analytics and Bolttech (where he also served as Chief Commercial Officer and President of the U.S. business). Earlier, Madhu was a partner at Oliver Wyman and spent 10 years as a venture capitalist, with an emphasis on data-driven disruptors in a variety of industries.

Madhu received a Bachelor of Arts from Princeton University and a Master of Business Administration from the Stanford University Graduate School of Business.
