

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Manufacturing

Travelers has been protecting the manufacturing sector for decades, offering specialist solutions that protect our policyholders from the diverse risks of a rapidly evolving industrial landscape. Our manufacturing product combines deep sector expertise with flexible cover designed for the realities of modern manufacturing.

Key selling points

Industry-focused expertise

Every manufacturer faces unique challenges—from complex machinery to international supply chains. We tailor our cover precisely to your operational and technological realities. Our dedicated underwriters, risk managers, and claim professionals specialise in manufacturing and work in close partnership with brokers and clients to help navigate changing regulations, supply chain pressures, and technological transformation.

Proactive Rehabilitation Service (PRS)

This unique service gets injured employees back to work faster, with immediate access to bespoke rehabilitation programmes. This early intervention can speed up recovery times and return to work. We don't wait for a claim to be made, and payments don't affect the client's claims experience. Full information is here.

Global reach, local expertise

Our seven offices across the UK and Ireland mean we're close to our clients when they need us, while our multinational capability supports businesses with export and vendor exposures—including to the US market.

Who is our cover for?

Our manufacturing proposition is designed for:

- Metals and industrial machinery manufacturers (e.g. machine shops, stamping, fabricating, cutting, and finishing operations)
- Manufacturers of static industrial machinery used in controlled environments (e.g. packaging, conveyor, precision tools)
- Component producers manufacturing to customer specification, non-safety critical and nonstructural parts
- Specialist engineering firms producing bespoke, high value, high quality products.

In addition, we also cover a range of other sub sectors which we have specialist wordings for. We're happy to discuss details of our manufacturing appetite – please see our contact details overleaf.
