

MICHAEL F. KLEIN

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT
PRESIDENT, PERSONAL INSURANCE
TRAVELERS

Michael Klein, Executive Vice President, is President of Personal Insurance for Travelers. He previously led the Middle Market business, served as President of Commercial Accounts, and was Senior Vice President of the Industry and Product Group.

Michael joined the company in 1990 and has held various positions in Commercial Insurance, Underwriting Knowledge Management, Corporate Planning and Development, Global Health Care Underwriting, and Financial and Professional Services.

Michael has also served a variety of industry-related and not-for-profit organizations over more than two decades. He currently serves as a Trustee for Malta House of Care in Hartford, Connecticut and as a member of the Executive Committee for Gamma Iota Sigma, a professional fraternity organized to encourage student interest in insurance as a profession.

Klein holds a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Minnesota State University – Mankato and is a fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society.