

Mojgan Lefebvre

Executive Vice President
Chief Technology & Operations Officer

Mojgan Lefebvre is Executive Vice President and Chief Technology & Operations Officer for Travelers. She is responsible for the company's technology, data, analytics, cybersecurity and business operations, including business resiliency, customer service, premium audit and billing across the enterprise.

Before joining Travelers in 2018, Lefebvre served as global Chief Information Officer (CIO) for Liberty Mutual's commercial business and held leadership positions of increasing responsibility across a variety of industries, including medical device company bioMérieux and strategy consulting firm Bain & Company.

Lefebvre is a strong advocate for women in technology fields. She is the executive sponsor of the company's partnerships with nonprofits Girls Who Code and AnitaB.org and is a founding member of T200, a tech peer community with a mission to foster, celebrate and advance women's leadership in technology.

She is one of Forbes' CIO Next 50 Innovative Technology Leaders, a BostonCIO Super Global ORBIE® Award winner, a CIO Hall of Fame inductee and a member of the National Diversity Council's Top 50 Most Powerful Women in Technology. She also won a Digital Insurance Women in Insurance Leadership Award.

Lefebvre graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in computer science and was class valedictorian of Georgia Tech's College of Sciences, and she earned an MBA from Harvard Business School. She has lived and worked in many countries and speaks French and Farsi fluently. She lives in Boston with her husband and two daughters.
